The first system of the musical score consists of a vocal line on a single staff and a piano accompaniment on two staves. The vocal line begins with a rest for four measures, followed by a melodic phrase. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line and chords in the right hand.

I praise thy beauty, thou my fair one,
Thou the flow'r art of flow'rs to me.
The "lehua" flower whose ardent sweetness
O'er powers the wand'rer o'er the lea,
And I cry "where art thou, my loved one,
My spirit would dwell with thee.
To taste hours of tranquil pleasure
And wander 'neath Koi-ahi's tree.

~~~~~ 3 ~~~~~

The trilling notes of hidden songsters,
As they sport round the jasmine bower.
Whose odor yet in mem'ry lingers,
Reminds of thee, the fairest flowers;
Of Vil-i-au the sweetest blossom,
Without thee, my life is lone.
Come fill my hours with bliss, I pray thee,

He Mele Lahui Hawaii.

Guard him with thy tender care
 Give him length of years to reign
 On the throne his Fathers won
 Bless the nation once again
 Give the King thy loving grace
 And with wisdom from on high
 Prosperous lead his people on
 As beneath thy watchful eye
 Grant thy peace etc, etc, etc,
